Chappell Hill Garden Club

January 12, 2022

The Chappell Hill Garden Club meeting opened at 11:57. Present were 31 members and 2 visitors, Vicki Henson and Gail Braun. Vicki joined the club.

Prior to the meeting, Kevin Deramus from Washington County EMS gave the program. Dale Ramey presented a donation from the club to Kevin.

Refreshments were provided by Dale Dugas, Debi Faver, Dixie Ford and Loyce Jardell.

A motion to approve the Nov. 10, 2021 minutes was made by Jayne Hollywood and seconded by Kim Pope. The minutes were approved.

Treasurer's Report Lynda Harrison reported the 2022 proposed budget will be approved at the February annual meeting. The budget will be emailed to members prior to the meeting. Final 2021 financial reports will also be presented at the February meeting.

Nametags Jere Hill asked members to bring their nametags to the February meeting. Several members took their nametags home after the Pre-Tour and cocktail party in December.

Main Street Cleanup Debi Faver thanked the 8 volunteers who helped with cleanup on Jan. 5. Debi divided Main Street Cleanup into zones, with committee members assigned to each zone. The newest zone is Chappell Hill United Methodist Church, where the club will maintain the beds, but the church will pay for the plants. A diagram of the zones and committee members is attached to the original minutes.

Committee Registration Members are required to serve on a committee. Members should indicate their committee choice on their membership application. If they do not choose, Bennie will assign them to committees.

Washington County EMS Volunteers Cathy McNurlen volunteered to chair a committee to coordinate volunteers for the Washington County EMS as needed.
Gardening Apps Katherine Pullins recommended PictureThis and Debra Salcedo recommended iNaturalist.

Community Events A community meeting will be held at the fire station in Chappell Hill Thursday, Jan. 27 from 6-8. Tx Dot will be there to answer questions.

Debi Faver thanked Angela Rutland for the Mardi Gras beads. Members were invited to take the beads home.

Twyla Kingsley moved to adjourn; Jodi Rodriguez seconded, and the meeting adjourned at 12:27.

Respectfully submitted,

Carol Madeley
