

Chappell Hill Garden Club

June 9, 2021

The Chappell Hill Garden Club meeting opened in prayer by Libby Kenjura at 10:03. Dale Dugas led the pledge of allegiance. Present were 30 members and two guests, Cindy Blount and Margie Ogradowicz. Cindy and Margie joined the club.

Refreshments were provided by Jayne Hollywood, Debi Faver and Libby Kenjura.

Home Tour Dale Ramey reported that two homes are confirmed for the 2021 home tour. Members are asked to contact Dale with any suggestions for additional homes. The Rug Hookers have agreed to display their rugs at the 2021 home tour.

Dale Ramey reminded members that they are responsible for purchasing five tickets to the home tour for a total of $100. Members may sell or give away the tickets. Bennie Yates told members they should have $50 in their garden club jars by now. Bennie will bring more jars for new members to the July meeting.

Ticket sales to members ensures that the club can provide scholarships. In 2021, $8,500 has been committed for scholarships.

Dale Ramey and Dale Dugas are working on finding sponsors for the home tour. Members are encouraged to provide suggestions for sponsors.

Dale Dugas is promoting 2020 sponsors on Facebook and encouraged members to like the posts.

Main Street Cleanup Debi Faver reported that watering on Main Street has begun. Dixie Ford, Jodi Rodriguez, Carol Locke and Carol Madeley are watering in June.

Debi Faver thanked the volunteers who helped with cleanup on June 2. In addition to cleaning beds and planting, the volunteers decorated for the Fourth of July. Debi gave the volunteers a token of appreciation. The next

Main Street Cleanup will be at 9 am, Wednesday, July 7 when Fourth of July decorations will be taken down.

Fourth of July Float Debi Faver discussed plans for the garden club's participation in the Chappell Hill Fourth of July Parade at 7 pm Saturday, July 3. A workshop to make treats to hand out at the parade will be at Debi's house, 3107 Jasmine St., at 11 am Thursday, June 17. A sign-up sheet was passed around for the workshop and the parade.

Members will meet at Nikki Rooney's house to decorate for the parade. More information will be sent later about dates and times.

Chappell Hill Chamber of Commerce will honor its Man, Woman and Business of the year at a banquet Thursday, June 17 from 5-7 at Texas Star Winery. Tickets are $30.

Nametags Dale Ramey thanked Jere Hill for the club's beautiful nametags.

Treasurer's Report Financial statements are available on the website. The combined bank balance at May 31, 2021 was $19,931.83 and net income through May 2021 was a loss of $5,337.16.

Two scholarship checks have been written so far each for $1,500 to Ileesha Bradford and Katie Murski. Lynda Harrison filed the 990-N tax return. Budgets are in line.

Programs Connie Wilder from Funky Art Café will present a cooking program at the July meeting.

Memorial for Mary Brandt Jere Hill suggested the club create a memorial for Mary Brandt, long time Chappell Hill resident who was the quintessential volunteer. The board will discuss the suggestion at the next board meeting.

Program Candice Bullock, Washington county commissioner, answered questions about her job. The program was interesting and informative.

Members may contact Candice at 512-787-2400 or cbullock@wacounty.com

Candice is the commissioner for Precinct 2, where most of the club's members reside. A map on the Washington County Commissioner Court website shows how the precincts are divided.

Being no further business, Kim Pope moved to adjourn; Tommie Montgomery seconded, and the meeting adjourned at 12:26.

Respectfully submitted,

Carol Madeley
Secretary
